

Our team pledges this International Women's Day.

“

I pledge to drive positive change through my actions - to accept, respect and stand by women (and men) of all abilities and backgrounds.

Debmita Guptasaha

CHU

“

I commit to empowering women with resilience, strength, and self-assurance. I vow to challenge prejudice and inequality, as well as, advocating for inclusivity and respect for the diverse identities within our communities. I pledge to strive towards a world where gender holds no limitations.

Zoe Laws

CHU

“

I will continue to be a good role model for my daughters so that they know anything is possible

Jenna Walker

CHU

“

I will elevate my commitment to inspire inclusion

Linlar Yim

CHU

“

I'm pledging my ongoing commitment to being an active voice and safe space for women in the LGBTQIA+ community. I'm also pledging to get involved in the conversation about raising awareness for women going through menopause and what we can do as a company to provide support and education in this space.

Claire Burke

CHU

“

Coming from a family with a single Mum, I will always vow to inspire and mentor women through my career.

Brett Power

CHU

“

I pledge to stand for equality, justice, rights, and to challenge stereotypes, until every woman's value is fully acknowledged and celebrated.

Jaycob Zivkovic

CHU

“

International Women's Day is a great reminder to celebrate the fantastic achievements of women. We should be lifting each other up and supporting one another. I pledge at CHU to recognise and celebrate these champions and milestones.

And to ensure that our workplace remains open and inclusive to everyone from all walks of life. Because we all deserve to feel included, supported and celebrated.

Lisa Wakeman

CHU